Services	AI phone agents and automation systems for restaurants, cafes, bakeries, and service-based businesses.

1. Agreement to These Terms

These Terms and Conditions ("Terms") govern access to and use of the RezFlo website, demos, AI voice agents, automations, integrations, onboarding materials, and related services (collectively, the "Services").

By accessing the website, booking a demo, using an embedded voice demo, signing an order form, paying an invoice, or using the Services, you agree to these Terms. If you use the Services on behalf of a business, you represent that you have authority to bind that business.

2. About RezFlo

RezFlo provides AI-powered phone agents and automation services for restaurants, cafes, bakeries, and service-based businesses. The Services may include AI call answering, reservation support, pickup order capture, FAQ responses, SMS confirmations, review request automations, CRM workflows, POS integrations, call summaries, recordings, transcripts, analytics, and related setup/support services.

3. Website and Demo Use

Our website and demo agents are provided for informational and demonstration purposes. Demo agents may use sample businesses, menus, names, and scenarios. Demo outputs may be inaccurate, incomplete, or fictional and should not be treated as binding business commitments.

You agree not to misuse demos, attempt to overload the system, submit unlawful or harmful content, record or publish demo interactions in a misleading way, or use the demo to reverse engineer the Services.

4. Client Services and Order Forms

Client services, pricing, plan details, included minutes, setup fees, overages, implementation scope, support level, and deliverables may be described in a proposal, order form, invoice, service agreement, or statement of work. If there is a conflict between these Terms and a signed written agreement, the signed written agreement controls for that client.

5. Accounts, Access, and Cooperation

Clients may need to provide access to business information and third-party tools such as phone systems, CRM platforms, POS systems, calendar tools, SMS providers, domain/website systems, and automation tools. Clients agree to provide accurate information and timely cooperation needed for setup and ongoing service.

Clients are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and security of their own accounts, credentials, API keys, staff permissions, and connected systems.

6. Client Content and Business Information

Clients are responsible for the accuracy, legality, and completeness of all content and information they provide, including menus, prices, hours, holiday schedules, policies, reservation rules, service areas, allergy/dietary statements, promotions, phone scripts, and customer instructions.

RezFlo may rely on client-provided information to configure AI agents and workflows. We are not responsible for errors caused by inaccurate, outdated, incomplete, or unclear client information.

7. AI Agent Limitations

AI systems can misunderstand callers, generate incorrect or incomplete outputs, fail to capture details, or behave unexpectedly. The Services are designed to assist business operations, not replace all human judgment.

Clients must review and monitor AI agent performance, especially for orders, reservations, complaints, allergies, dietary restrictions, emergencies, pricing, refunds, legal issues, and any matter that could materially affect a customer or the business.

The Services do not provide medical, legal, financial, emergency, safety, or professional advice. The Services should not be used for emergency calls or high-risk situations.

8. Reservations, Orders, POS, and Workflow Integrations

Where configured, RezFlo may capture reservation requests, pickup orders, customer inquiries, or other details and send them to CRM, POS, calendar, SMS, or workflow tools. Clients are responsible for confirming that integrations are working correctly and that the resulting data is accurate.

Unless expressly stated in a signed agreement, RezFlo does not guarantee that any reservation, order, SMS, CRM update, POS injection, calendar booking, or workflow will be completed without error, delay, duplication, or interruption.

Clients must maintain appropriate staff review, order confirmation, customer service processes, refund policies, and operational procedures.

9. Call Recording, Consent, and Customer Notices

If call recording, transcription, AI call handling, SMS, or similar features are enabled, clients are responsible for providing legally appropriate notices and obtaining any required consents from callers, customers, staff, and other individuals.

Clients are responsible for complying with privacy, anti-spam, consumer protection, telecommunication, employment, accessibility, food safety, POS/payment, and other laws applicable to their operations.

10. SMS, Email, and Marketing Communications

Where the Services send SMS messages, emails, review requests, confirmations, reminders, or marketing messages, clients are responsible for ensuring they have appropriate consent, identification information, unsubscribe mechanisms, and records required by applicable law.

RezFlo may provide technical tools, but clients remain responsible for how they use those tools with their customers and contacts.

11. Fees, Payment, and Taxes

Fees are as described in the applicable proposal, order form, invoice, or subscription plan. Fees may include setup fees, monthly subscription fees, usage-based fees, included minutes, overage charges, add-ons, custom integrations, support fees, or third-party pass-through costs.

Unless otherwise stated, fees are due according to the invoice or payment terms provided. Late payments may result in suspension or termination of Services. Clients are responsible for applicable taxes and third-party platform charges.

12. Subscriptions, Cancellation, and Suspension

Subscription terms, renewal periods, cancellation rights, refunds, and notice requirements may be set out in the applicable order form or invoice. If not specified, subscriptions continue month-to-month until cancelled with reasonable written notice before the next billing cycle.

RezFlo may suspend or restrict access to the Services for non-payment, security issues, suspected misuse, legal risk, platform restrictions, or violation of these Terms.

13. Third-Party Services

The Services may depend on third-party platforms, including voice AI providers, CRM tools, SMS providers, POS systems, calendar tools, payment processors, hosting providers, automation tools, and analytics tools. Examples may include ElevenLabs, Go High Level, n8n, Zapier, Clover, Calendly, Meta, Google, and similar providers depending on the implementation.

Third-party services are governed by their own terms, privacy policies, pricing, availability, rate limits, and technical constraints. We are not responsible for third-party outages, data loss, API changes, price changes, account suspensions, or failures outside our reasonable control.

14. Acceptable Use

You agree not to use the Services to:

- Violate any law, regulation, third-party right, or platform policy;
- Collect unnecessary sensitive information or use personal information without appropriate consent;
- Send spam, unlawful marketing messages, misleading communications, or abusive content;
- Harass, threaten, defraud, impersonate, or deceive any person;
- Upload malware, attempt unauthorized access, interfere with systems, or bypass security controls;
- Reverse engineer, scrape, copy, resell, or misuse the Services except as allowed by written agreement;
- Use the Services for emergency response, safety-critical decisions, medical/legal/financial advice, or high-risk activities.

15. Intellectual Property

RezFlo and its licensors own all rights in the Services, website, software, workflows, templates, prompts, documentation, designs, processes, trade names, logos, and related intellectual property, except for client content and third-party materials.

Clients retain ownership of their own business content, menu data, branding, customer data, and materials they provide. Clients grant RezFlo a limited licence to use such content as necessary to provide, support, improve, and demonstrate the Services as agreed.

16. Feedback and Suggestions

If you provide feedback, ideas, suggestions, or recommendations, you grant RezFlo permission to use them without restriction or compensation, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

17. Confidentiality

Each party may receive confidential or non-public information from the other. Each party agrees to use reasonable care to protect confidential information and to use it only for the purposes of the business relationship, unless disclosure is required by law or permitted by written agreement.

18. Privacy

Our handling of personal information is described in the RezFlo Privacy Policy. Clients are also responsible for their own privacy notices, consents, records, and compliance obligations for their customers and staff.

19. Service Availability and Changes

We aim to provide reliable Services, but we do not guarantee uninterrupted, error-free, or always-available service. We may update, modify, suspend, or discontinue features as needed for security, performance, legal compliance, third-party changes, or business reasons.

20. Disclaimers

The Services are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis to the maximum extent permitted by law. We disclaim warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, uninterrupted operation, error-free performance, and results unless expressly stated in a signed written agreement.

We do not guarantee increased revenue, reduced missed calls, additional bookings, customer satisfaction, conversion rates, order accuracy, or business outcomes. Any examples, case studies, or demonstrations are illustrative only.

21. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, RezFlo will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages, including lost profits, lost revenue, lost business, lost data, lost goodwill, business interruption, or costs of substitute services.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, RezFlo's total liability for any claim related to the Services will not exceed the amounts paid by the client to RezFlo for the Services giving rise to the claim during the three (3) months before the event giving rise to liability, or CAD $100 if no paid services were purchased.

22. Indemnity

Clients agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless RezFlo and its owners, employees, contractors, and service providers from claims, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses arising from:

- Client content, business information, scripts, menus, pricing, policies, or instructions;
- Client use of the Services or connected third-party systems;
- Failure to obtain required consents or provide required notices;
- Violation of privacy, anti-spam, consumer protection, employment, food safety, accessibility, POS/payment, or other laws;
- Misuse of AI outputs, order/reservation errors, customer disputes, or operational decisions made by the client;
- Violation of these Terms or third-party platform terms.

23. Termination

Either party may terminate according to the applicable order form or written agreement. RezFlo may terminate or suspend access immediately if continued service creates legal, security, financial, platform, or operational risk.

Upon termination, the client remains responsible for amounts owed and for exporting or requesting data within any applicable period. Some data may remain in backups, logs, third-party systems, or records where retention is required or permitted.

24. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein, unless a signed written agreement states otherwise. The parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in Ontario, Canada, subject to any mandatory consumer protection laws that may apply.

25. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. Updated Terms will be posted on our website with a revised effective date. Continued use of the Services after changes become effective means you accept the updated Terms.
